REFLECT & RESPOND

THE LORD'S SUPPER is the act of remembering Jesus for what he accomplished by dying on the cross for our sins. Jesus asked his followers to remember that his body was broken and his blood was shed as he took the punishment for our sin.

You don't have to be a member of Turning Point to participate. If you have accepted Jesus Christ as your Lord then you are welcome to join us in celebrating the Lord's Table.

Discover 1 & Connect 2 — New Member Classes: Interested in becoming a committed part of our church family? Start with Discover 1. Packets are available in the lobby. Please read, fill out, and turn in the application at the front desk. Once received, your Connect 2 class with Pastor Thomas will be made available. Dates will be provided. LAST WEEK'S SERMON

Christianity You Can Imitate

Paul shifts from correction to loving exhortation, showing that true spiritual leadership forms people through relationship, example, and gospel truth.

1. Receive correction as an expression of love.

Paul admonishes as a loving father, not to shame but to restore. Godly correction is a gift that shapes us into Christ's likeness when we receive it with humility.

2. Find a faithful Christ follower and imitate them.

Christianity is not just taught, it is lived. Paul calls believers to imitate a cross-shaped life, reminding us that we grow by following faithful examples.

3. Regularly place yourself under gospel reminders.

Through Timothy, Paul reinforces the need for constant reminders of "the ways in Christ." Scripture, preaching, and community keep us grounded in truth.

4. Evaluate your spiritual life by transformation.

The kingdom of God is not about impressive words but real power, seen in changed lives marked by humility, repentance, and faithfulness.

5. Respond quickly to conviction so that discipline is not necessary.

Paul desires restoration, not punishment. When we respond to conviction with humility, we experience grace and avoid deeper correction.

In the end, this passage calls us to a Christianity that can actually be seen and followed, a life shaped by the cross, not the culture; marked by humility, not pride; and empowered by God, not mere words. Christ Himself is the ultimate example, who did not merely teach truth but embodied it perfectly. As we follow Him and imitate faithful believers, our lives begin to reflect the transforming power of the gospel, so that others may see not just what we say, but who we are becoming in Him.
