REFLECT & RESPOND

THE LORD'S SUPPER is the act of remembering Jesus for what he accomplished by dying on the cross for our sins. Jesus asked his followers to remember that his body was broken and his blood was shed as he took the punishment for our sin.

You don't have to be a member of Turning Point to participate. If you have accepted Jesus Christ as your Lord then you are welcome to join us in celebrating the Lord's Table.

PREVIOUS SERMON

Following Jesus Is Not a Solo Journey
Hebrews 10:19–25

Christ's sacrifice gives us confidence to approach God and calls us into shared responsibility for His people. Following Him includes receiving encouragement and helping others remain faithful through life's challenges.

1. Draw near to God in repentance and confidence.

Our welcome before God rests entirely on Jesus' sufficient sacrifice, so we can confess our sins honestly without trying to manufacture our own worthiness. Come to Him in sincere repentance, trusting His cleansing grace, and worship alongside others who depend on that very same Savior.

2. Identify one pressure weakening your hope.

Bring it to God in prayer with a trusted believer.
God's faithfulness gives us reason to persevere when grief, uncertainty, or unanswered prayer puts pressure on our hope in Christ and makes obedience feel costly. Share a specific struggle with a trusted believer who will pray with you and help you remember God's trustworthy promises.

3. Make gathering with the church a priority.

Come ready to encourage someone. Gathering gives us opportunities to notice one another's needs and encourage love, obedience, and perseverance as we look toward Christ's return with confidence in His promises.

Make room for thoughtful conversation, prayer, and practical help, and warmly contact someone who has been growing increasingly isolated.
Our encouragement will be imperfect, but Christ remains sufficient and God remains faithful. Through Jesus, we draw near, hold fast, and strengthen one another until the Day of His return.
