Japan "Yes" Jesus!

With Yoshinori just minutes after he said "Yes"

My son is 42 and stage 4 and doesn't know Jesus...will you come share the Gospel with him? That was my invitation and not the first time to share Jesus with a terminal cancer patient.

It was a beautiful appointment. Although Yoshinori can no longer hold his head up as his spine is disintegrating, he listened, he read all the Scriptures, and he prayed the prayer to receive Jesus. Anyone else could have done it. It only meant opening one of our GospelShare booklets and reading it together.

Junko was having a conversation with open minded, Kaho, and her Christian boyfriend, Satoru. So Junko gave Satoru a GospelShare and had him read it with Kaho right then and there. And Kaho said "yes" to Jesus on the spot! Before her baptism she texted Junko; "I cant imagine living life without with out believing in Jesus!"

Leading someone to Jesus is easy- so easy even a child can do it. That is the message we keep repeating here in Japan.

And little by little we make inroads and see change, but its not about the lost being open, its simply about believers doing what Jesus said to do (Mark 16:15).

Leaders get acquainted with GospelShare at JCE7 conference

Praise God we had 140 attend our GospelShare orientation at the recent Japan Congress of Evangelism gathering. Please pray that Japan believers stop believing the myths and deceits of the enemy and simply read a little booklet with people... everywhere.

WE GIVE GOD PRAISE FOR YOU! WITHOUT PRAYER NOTHING WILL HAPPEN!

Things Keep Blossoming

Do you remember in May we started with our daughter Sophia, Blossom disability fellowship? Our last gathering was especially encouraging with so many blessed by the safe space, and understanding, and accessibility for all.

But now we are out of Japan for over six months and Sophia is carrying most of the responsibility for the group. This is very challenging for her in that her hearing impairment, visual impairment, and physical impairments impede her from doing all that is normally required. Please pray for her to stay encouraged and for more people to join with her in touching lives.

Operation Mohala

(Petals Unfolding) Please pray! This project is funded by Japanese believers for people on Maui, post-disaster, to say "yes" to Jesus!

The goal is to get these new GospelShares out to Maui churches by mid November and lives could come to Christ before Christmas.

This is a special Maui edition and is linked to our Maui YouVersion follow up plans.

Aloha! Maui No Ka Oi!
